

OCTOBER 9–10, 2026

Lebanon, Tennessee

COMING TO LEBANON: A REGIONAL AVIATION EVENT

What Gallatin experienced in 2025. What Lebanon can expect in 2026.

Music City STOL is a national short takeoff and landing (STOL) aviation competition and community event, part of the National STOL series that reaches 600,000+ aviation followers and 267 million impressions per season. In 2026, the event moves to Lebanon, Tennessee, on October 9–10.

2025 GALLATIN, TN — BY THE NUMBERS

1,200+

attended Rock'n STOL concert

~50% from out of town

1,300+

at Saturday's STOL Competition

~60% from out of town

VISITORS FROM 14+ STATES:

KY

MN

NY

MD

FL

AL

IN

GA

RI

KS

TX

NC

MO

+

"We are beyond thrilled by the incredible turnout and energy that surrounded both the inaugural Rock'n STOL concert and the third annual Music City STOL competition! We are impressed by the amount of out-of-state visitors that spent their time and money in Gallatin for the STOL weekend. We're confident the visitors experienced the welcoming spirit that makes Gallatin so special. Events like these truly highlight our city's growing reputation as a destination for aviation enthusiasts and music fans alike."

— Jenna Landstrom, Gallatin Tourism Department

MEDIA & GOVERNMENT INQUIRIES:

Chad Hall · chad@boldaviation.org · (615) 400-6148

Music City STOL is produced by BOLD Aviation, a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization · nationalstol.com